Опыт работы

• Qsbot.app

2021 - CEO

Cloud service focused on the global market. Website and widget builder in a gamified button dialogue format. In 2023, I rewrote the frontend and backend applications into a modern stack. The launch of the service was carried out, including on Producthunt.

Stack: Django 4, DRF, Postgre, Redis, Celery, React.js, Next.js (Redux, RTK, TypeScript, Server Components).

Integrations: Telegram API for additional user-notifications, Cryptoprocessing with Cryptocloud as the main method of payment by users, OpenAI API to automate the process of creating projects (the ability to create projects by its title)

• Smt-clinic.ru

2020 - Web-developer

Web-app for one of the leading medical centers in the Ural (Russian Region). The application is developed taking into account the high requirements for speed and search engine optimization of the project. In the first iteration, the application was built as a monolith based on Django. In the current iteration, the frontend is built with extensive use of Next.js server components.

Stack: Django 4, DRF, Postgre, Redis, Celery, Next.js (Redux, RTK, TypeScript)

Integrations: Arhimed CRM (Medical CRM system. An API has been developed to interact with it in order to implement direct appointments with doctors).

• Mc-angio.ru

2020 - Web-developer

Web-app for a large medical center in Russia. Significant attention is paid to the application's speed (static page generation) and the modularity of the structure for convenient application development in the future.

Stack: Django 4, DRF, Postgre, NextJS (Redux, TypeScript).
